

om Overhead Debris Containment System

InCord manufactures debris netting for every construction application imaginable — including the United States Capitol.

Our custom-designed debris containment system was made of four protective layers, allowing the Capitol rotunda to remain open to visitors during the restoration.

